The Ken Williams Memorial Scholarship

The Washington Environmental Council is offering a scholarship of up to $1000.00 for Washington, Roxbury or Bridgewater students interested in summer study in the environment.

The scholarship is open to any middle & high school or college student in sound scholastic standing who would like to attend environmentally oriented programs during the summer. Washington residents will have preference, all other application factors being equal. Funds are available to help with tuition, travel and room and board expenses.

Such programs include, but are not limited to, those offered by: The National Audubon Society, The Student Conservation Association, The National Wildlife Federation, and Outward Bound. More information can be obtained through these organizations directly.

Candidates must submit an application and two references, one personal (other than family) or employment reference and one school reference.

Completed applications should be sent to The Washington Environmental Council, P.O. Box 283, Washington, CT 06794, by April 20, 2008. The recipient will be notified by May 18, 2008. Applications received after this time will be reviewed based upon available funds.
